

Chamber Smoker Features Football Coach and Films

Grandstand quarterbacks of Antioch, here's your chance.

Roy Nelson, varsity coach of the Antioch High School football squad, will be the guest speaker at a smoker sponsored by the Membership Committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Nelson will show films of some of this past season's games and comment on the team's performance and what the future holds for Antioch grid fans. The program is scheduled for Tuesday, November 19 at the Antioch Savings & Loan Association Community Room at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Nelson will shed a little light on some of the means the High School has taken to improve enthusiasm for the sport, both from a student and community outlook. Results are already evident. Antioch had the largest turnout for football in its history and although it wasn't a winning season, fans can look forward to one of the best teams in many years with the opening of the 1964 schedule.

A graduate of Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois, Mr. Nelson lettered in football, wrestling and boxing. He was captain of the football team in his senior year and won two Golden Gloves championships. He also went to the finals in the N.C.A.A. meet at Madison, Wisconsin.

Mr. Nelson's education was interrupted by four years in the Navy during World War II. He played football with Bainbridge, N. T.S., fought for the 4th Fleet championship in South America and finally was attached to antisubmarine warfare both with the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets. Following his discharge, Nelson returned to Bradley and completed his senior year.

Nelson came to Antioch in 1958 from Paxton, Ill., where he served as football basket-

Avon Players Will Present "The Bat"

Of all the mystery plays which have been produced on the American stage (and there are hundreds of them) "The Bat" has proven to be the daddy of them all. Incident is piled upon incident with skill and plausibility, and it is impossible to know who the real criminal is until the final curtain.

This play is founded on the Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous story, "The Circular Staircase," and the dramatization was made by Mrs. Rinehart and the late Avery Hopwood.

"The Bat" is a marked departure from that highly successful farce, "Seven Days," by these same authors, and it is a convincing proof of their high standing as dramatists that they were able to write successfully on such widely different themes.

In their endeavor to maintain the high standard they have set, the Avon Players have selected "The Bat" for their next production at the Avon Center School Auditorium, Lake Villa, Rte. 21, on Friday evening, Nov. 15, and Saturday evening, Nov. 16, at 8:30 p.m. A special children's performance was given Sunday afternoon, Nov. 10, at 4:00 p.m.

The cast will include Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hain of Lake Bluff, Mr. Bryan Moats of Highland Lake as the prying detective, and Mrs. Oscar Gyllin of Round Lake as the scatterbrained maid. Others in the cast include Mr. and Mrs. Roger Insand of Highland Lake, Mr. Charles Christensen, Round Lake, Mr. Larry Leafblad, Grayslake, Mr. George Miller, Grayslake, and Mr. James Myers, Gurnee.

"The Bat" is under the direction of Mr. William Hartnett, prominent attorney of Waukegan and Grayslake. Producer of this season's offering is Mrs. Edward Gnarrow, Grayslake, and assisting her is Mrs. Jony Shay, Grayslake.

Grass Lake Votes Sat.

Members of the Grass Lake School District will vote this Saturday on two proposals for additions to their school.

One proposal will be for a bond issue of $68,000.00 to construct a gymnasium as an addition to the school building. The other proposal will be for the issuance of $130,000.00 in bonds for the construction of a gymnasium and four classrooms.

Polling will be at the Grass Lake School from noon to 7 p.m. this Saturday, Nov. 16.

Grass Lake School has an enrollment of about 170 and has no gym at present.

Cemetery Association Elects Officers

The Antioch Hillside Cemetery Association held its annual meeting on November 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch. The following officers were elected: Robert J. Wilton, president; Frank Powles, vice president; Vera L. Horton, secretary; William E. Brook, treasurer; trustees, Earl Horton, Fred Hawkins, Mrs. Antoinette Fields, Joseph E. Horton and Mrs. Fern Lux Watson.

Bernard S. Stadick was hired as caretaker.

Special Show For Children at Xmas Fair

The Christmas season in Antioch will open with the Christmas Fair on November 30 and December 1 being planned by the Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the displays of merchants, entertainment will be provided on both nights and Sunday afternoon. Larry Tobler, King of the Banjo, will provide music ranging from Classical to Popular, plus trick playing, imitations and novelty tunes.

On Sunday afternoon, especially for the children, the Lancasters, a Doggone Novelty, will be featured. They have appeared on TV and

County Board O.K.s Budget

The budget appropriation and levy announced at last month's meeting of the County Board of Supervisors was adopted at Tuesday's meeting of the Board minus $6,000.00 cut from the appropriation for the treasurer's office. The levy was not affected by the cut. The original budget was $3,904,070, the levy $918,910.

Approval of the budget and levy followed suggestions for cuts from various supervisors, which were voted down by the board. The one cut which was approved followed a motion by Supervisor Robert Depke of Warren township that $10,000.00 be cut from the appropriation for the treasurer's office. He pointed out that the board was appropriating $10,000 more for this office than last year. The $10,000 cut was voted down.

Joseph Scazalotti, Deerfield township, suggested that the appropriation for the Lake Region Planning Commission, headed by Robert Morris, be cut from $84,700 to $25,000. In the discussion that followed Kenneth Henke of Benton township pointed out that Federal funds which the county receives are contingent on the hiring of a Planning Commission. Scazalotti finally offered to compromise by cutting the appropriation to $54,000, but the cut was voted down in its entirety.

Local Hospital Fund Drive Swings Into Action Today

The follow-up on the fund drive for the Countryside Hospital fund will swing into action on Thursday, Nov. 14. The Cooperative Women's group is handling the campaign. Members of Antioch civic and social organizations will do the leg-work seeking to contact everyone who has not previously been approached for a donation or pledge to the fund. The Antioch drive is under the direction of Edith Elms; the Lake Villa drive, conducted at the same time, is under the direction of June Eckert.

The Women's group will follow through on the campaign started by the professional fund-raisers. Their motto is, "We want our hospital started by spring." The door-to-door fund drive will last for one week in Antioch, from November 14 to Nov. 21.

In Lake Villa, the drive will start when the women meet at the Hospital Fund headquarters at 9:00 a.m. Thursday. Workers will follow a schedule of 9 a.m. to 12 noon, 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and the following Monday and Tuesday. On Saturday and Sunday, workers will be out from 1 to 3 p.m.

The campaign in Avon and Grant townships will be organized at a later date.

All of the women of the area are invited to contact their local chairmen to help in the drive, even if they can only give an hour of their time.

With plans for the fund solicitation set, the plans for the giant Hootenanny scheduled for Friday, November 29, at the Antioch-Community High School are also in full swing.

Three hours of fast-moving entertainment, with professionals and recording artists, will be sprinkled with local talent. Jack Taylor of WGN will MC the show. All performers are donating their services.

Some of the professional talent that will appear on the show are Nancy Kay, Family Four, Johnny Laury, and the Earl Calm trio.

Some of the local talent which has been signed up include Pat LaFarr, ten-year-old accordionist from Antioch; the Lake County Boys, a vocal group; the Blue Ridge Clay Boys, a vocal and instrumental group; and Marge Blank, vocal and instrumental.

The artists will be entertained at a smorgasbord at Joe & Helen's later the show. Anyone else wishing to attend may get tickets at Joe & Helen's or from Mrs. Norman James. Proceeds from the smorgasbord will go to defray the cost of the smorgasbord to the artists, not to the Hospital Fund, according to Mrs. James.

The ticket sale for the Hootenanny is going good, according to Mrs. James. Local people who wish to perform can contact Mrs. James at El 6-8400.

Mystery Play and Party This Friday and Saturday

VALERIE HUNLEY will portray one of the leading roles in the forthcoming Palette, Masque and Lyre production of the British murder mystery "Night Must Fall" scheduled for four performances beginning November 15th.

Live theater, plus a semi-formal after-theater party are on the bill of fare for Antioch patrons of the Arts this week-end. "Night Must Fall" will have its opening night in the new theater of the Palette, Masque & Lyre on Friday night, followed by a party at Lorep's, Spnari Country House.

The play will run for four nights—Friday, Nov. 15, Saturday, Nov. 16, Friday, Nov. 22, and Saturday, Nov. 23. Curtain time each night will be at 8:30 p.m., with tickets going on sale at the box office at 7:45 P.M.

The Antioch Art Guild will have some of their works on display in the lobby of the Theater throughout the run of the play.

Tickets for the after-theater party may be reserved by calling Shirley Stanich at 395-0676, or Agnes Van Patten at 395-1615.

Jr. College Cost Told In Survey

Many of the facts about the proposed Junior college will no doubt be brought out at the public hearing which Dr. W. C. Petty, Lake County Superintendent of Schools, has scheduled for Thursday, November 21, at Warren High School in Gurnee. The hearing will start at 8 p.m. and is open to the public.

"How much will it cost?" is probably the question uppermost in most taxpayers' minds.

In their preliminary survey, Booz-Allen & Hamilton, Management Consultants, estimate the cost of the first construction (including building cost, furnishings, site development, contingent costs, architects' fees, and cost of the site) at about $5,552,000.

The cost of the second phase, due in 1971 or 1972, is estimated to be about $978,000. Total cost of the college through 1975 (exclusive of operating costs) is estimated at $6,530,000.

Breakdown of these figures in the survey includes for the first phase, 248,000 sq. ft. at $15.00 per square foot construction cost; $3,720,000; furnishings at 15% of construction costs, $558,000; site development at 6% of construction costs; contingencies at 5% of construction costs; architect's fees, $265,000; purchase of a site for the college, 200 acres at $3,000 per acre.

The survey firm estimates that 1,500 full-time day students will be enrolled in the junior college the first year, at a cost per year of $3,701 per student. This expense will be shared by the student, the state and the county. Operating expenses of the college are expected to range from about $1,300,000 to $1,500,000 yearly during the first ten years of its operation. The college should be in operation for the year of 1965-66.

The State now provides aid to Junior colleges of $7.60 per semester-hour of credit earned in the college. A law which is expected to pass soon would raise this aid to $10 per semester hour.

State law limits the student's tuition expenses to not more than one-third of the operating costs of the college. 25% of the operating costs is usually considered a

Angered, Sets Fire To House

A fire at the home of Bernard Vandembosch, Jr., 25, of 410 Channel Drive, off Grass Lake Road south of Antioch, endangered the life of 15-month-old Dana Marie Pearce last Sunday. Vandembosch's estranged wife, Marilyn, later admitted to deputies that she started the fire.

Mrs. Vandembosch said she went to the house to get support money. When she entered a bedroom of the house she saw the baby, and women's clothing not belonging to her in the closet. Angered, she ground a burning cigarette into a dress and left.

The fire was discovered when Vandembosch and some friends, in the basement, saw smoke. They went upstairs and found the bedroom in flames. Rose Marie Pearce, Rt. 3, Antioch, entered the burning room and rescued her daughter.

The Antioch Fire Department was called and put out the flames. Extensive damage was done in the house. Mrs. Vandembosch had returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Herbst.

Police were called to the home on the report that a man was at the Herbst house with a gun. Vandembosch was arrested at the home, but no gun found on him.

DR. RONALD G. WEIGAND of Abbott Laboratories has been appointed co-chairman of the 1964 Cancer Crusade in Lake County.

Gavin Gallop On Nov. 16th

The Gavin Gallop, sponsored by the Gavin PTA will be held on Saturday, Nov. 16, between 5 and 9 p.m. at the Gavin Central School on Route 59-132 and Wilson Road. Mrs. George Dreyer, PTA President, promises that this year's Gallop will be an exciting fun filled event with surprises and activities for all ages.

Co-Chairmen Robert Anderson and Paul Gosell say that the Gallop has many surprises in store for everyone. It will be a combination bazaar, circus, fair and show. There will be a new event, a book fair, new and used goods for sale. There will be a choice of jewelry, Christmas trimmings, dolls, and hats. Cakes, cookies, and other tempting foods will be available. Clowns will circulate among the participants and entertain the youngsters.

Traps Stolen After NICC Turkey Shoot

An unhappy aftermath of the otherwise highly successful turkey shoot conducted by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club was the apparent theft of two traps after the close of the shoot last Sunday.

Darkness fell before the shoot ended. The tired clean-up crew, after removing two of the traps, decided to leave the other two until morning. When Dick Waters returned to the field on route 21 at 8 o'clock the next morning to pick up the last two traps, they had disappeared. Members are investigating the theft.

Marksman kept the traps operating steadily all day last Sunday. Club officials reported that 715 sportsmen took part in the competition, and 166 birds were won. The club took in about $1,000.

A new feature this year was matches for children under twelve years old. Youngest winner in this group was Frankie Benes III, Antioch, eight years old. Shooters were present from fourteen northern Illinois counties, and four southern Wisconsin counties.

High School Year Book Now Available

The Antioch Community High School yearbook can now be purchased at the school cafeteria, Monday thru Friday, during the 4th and 5th hours.

The purchase price is $4.00 each, payable in full amount or on installment, $2.00 now and $2.00 later. Notification of the second installment will be posted during second semester.

Sports Film To Cap Youth Day

This Saturday there will be a premiere showing of the colored film, "Play for Keeps," an outstanding film portraying some of America's outstanding Christian athletes in action, at the Lake Villa School Auditorium.

The showing of this film will climax six hours of activity for teenagers from ten area churches, beginning at 1:00 and ending at 7:00 p.m. Included in the day will be a volley-ball tourney, Bible Quiz tourney, a sing-along, inspiration, devotion time, special music, supper and an outstanding youth program presented by young people selected from each of the churches.

This event is sponsored by are churches with the Rev. Dwight Reed, Pastor of the Grace Community Church of Venetian Village, directing the activities. The public is invited to the afternoon's activities and to the showing of the film at 6:00 p.m.

In order of their appearance in the film, the athletes are: Alvin Dark—manager of the San Francisco Giants; Felipe Alou—star outfielder of the San Francisco Giants; Bobby Richardson—star second baseman of the New York Yankees; Bill Wade—Former Vanderbilt great, played nine seasons as quarterback for the L. A. Rams; Raymond Berry—Baltimore Colts all-pro end; Bill Glass—all-pro defensive end with the Cleveland Browns.

THE REGISTRATION TABLE at the turkey shoot was a busy place all day. Harry Stern, viewed through gun barrels in the rack, and Howard Pannier take money and contestants names.

Traffic Murders

A group of Harvard researchers, making an intensive study of causes of traffic fatalities, have uncovered one startling fact; that many of the accidents are unsuspected murders and suicides.

The Harvard team is headed by Alfred L. Moseley, a veteran medicolegal investigator. It includes an "operations" group working at accident scenes and a "clinical" group made up of a pathologist, chemist, technician, sociologist, internist, psychiatrist, ophthalmologist, optometrist, statistician, clergyman and attorney.

The Harvard team began its intensive investigation of causes of fatal highway collisions in December of 1958. It will finish the study this year, after covering hundreds of accidents.

The data they have compiled has already led to some important recommendations:

1. That drivers should be trained for emergencies such as blowouts, brake pedal loss, etc., by actual experience.
2. That precautions should be taken to see that all vehicles on the road are in good working condition.
3. Licenses should be issued only to graduates of driver education courses, drivers re-examined at regular periods, and new drivers prohibited from carrying passengers other than an instructor for the first year.
4. Investigation into traffic fatalities should be as thorough as that accorded a murder.
5. Motor vehicle design should be based on studies of actual causes of deaths in collisions.

Probably hundreds of lives could be saved, and many crimes uncovered, if the recommendations of the research group were followed. It's also certain the attempt to really institute any of these procedures would be met with stiff resistance.

Strangely, one or two deaths from food poisoning or a faulty drug will rouse an immediate response, and a demand for tighter laws and stricter supervision, while hundreds of people die daily on our nation's highways and the slaughter is calmly accepted as inevitable.

Inconsistent Laws

The U. S. Government, like the Lord, sometimes seems to move in strange and wonderful ways it's wonders to perform. Some of the Federal laws are so delightfully inconsistent that the person reflecting on them can only marvel at the seeming strangeness of reasoning behind them.

Take, for example, the law which forbids the publication, by newspapers which go through the U.S. mails, of any details of any lottery, or other form of gambling, in states where gambling is prohibited by law.

The Federal Government does not prohibit gambling. The State of Illinois does. However, the Federal Government insists that those who have gambling devices buy gambling stamps. And they sell gambling stamps to Illinois residents. Yet newspapers are forbidden to print the name of the winner of a small local raffle. The fact that the raffle was run for sweet charity's sake carries no weight. Inconsistent? It certainly seems so.

What makes the attitude of the U.S. Mails even more puzzling is the fact that this restriction doesn't seem to apply to any other form of law-breaking. News of speeders, burglars, murderers—thoroughly legitimate. News that Joe Doakes won $50 playing bingo at some local church—no, sir.

Interpretation and enforcement of the anti-gambling laws, on a whole, seems inconsistent with enforcement of other laws. We don't believe the prohibition of gambling was ever meant to extend to civic projects raising money for a good cause. Yet it is. What if the same line of reasoning were followed in respect to other laws—say, the law against speeding and reckless driving? Would it not mean that race tracks must be abolished?

As a crowning inconsistency, as regards the newspaper which uses the mails and news of events which might be construed as gambling, enforcement of the prohibition is pretty well left up to the discretion of the local postmaster. One postmaster may interpret the law broadly, another may follow it to the letter, thus adding to the confusion.

So if you won $100.00 in a raffle, don't expect to see your name in the paper. Remember, legally it never happened.

There have been indications that incumbent county officials who will be up for re-election in the April primary and the 1964 general election will band together and run as a team in the primary as well as in the fall runoff.

Up for re-election next year are County Coroner Robert H. Babcock, County Auditor John Audittor, County Recorder Frank Nustra, State's Attorney Bruno W. Stanczak, and Circuit Court Clerk Stephanie Pucin Sullivan.

There has been little indication as yet of serious opposition for any of the incumbents and a team effort on their part would almost certainly give a prospective candidate reason to pause and reflect.

The absence of substantial Republican contests at the county level could have an important bearing on legislative, Congressional, and state primary races since the voter turnout among the Republicans would probably be substantially reduced without the incentive of local contests.

A free ride for the incumbents in the primary would make those who want to get involved in the other races available for open support of their personal choices, another factor which could have a bearing on the results of these contests.

According to a news release from Bill Rentschler, the dandy candy maker and a candidate for the GOP Senator in 1960, he will head up a committee working for the reelection of Cong. Robert McClary in 1964.

Rentschler's activity in the McClary camp is being interpreted by some as a move to "Stop Max Wildman," not only as a possible candidate in the primary against Cong. McClary, but also as a future obstacle to any Senatorial ambitions. Rentschler may still possess.

Wildman is generally considered to be the one person who could give Cong. McClary a real battle for the 12th Congressional District nod, but he has not as yet made a definite decision about being a candidate for the post.

It can be safely assumed, however, that the lanky Lake Bluff attorney is sending thoughtful consideration to strong suggestions that he make another try for the Congressional post.

There is a strong feeling among those opposed to Cong. McClary that he must be defeated in 1964 or he will remain in his seat in Congress from now on or until he decides to make a move on his own.

Look for the emergence of some new alignments in the GOP Central Committee based on the determination of some party stalwarts to oust County Chairman Robert J. Milton from his party post.

There have been some meetings to consolidate support for John Babcock, of Cuba Township, who was narrowly defeated by Milton in the 1962 party conference.

Some of Milton's strongest supporters in the past have reportedly agreed to give Babcock serious consideration and at the present time he appears to be the only serious challenger.

Still under consideration is Probate Clerk Hugo Schneider, whose principal shortcoming, according to many committeemen, is that he is an elected county official and the committeemen prefer somebody outside of elected officialdom.

This objection might be discounted, however, since Schneider's office is eliminated under the provisions of the judicial reform amendment on Jan. 1, although he will serve out his term.

Milton, of course, would make a strong comeback if Charles F. Percy, the chairman's choice for governor, upsets Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter in the gubernatorial primary.

The political wings are filled to overflowing with prospective candidates for the Illinois General Assembly who are waiting anxiously waiting to see if re-apportionment is carried out and if so how Lake County is divided.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClary

Pending in Congress is a bill authorizing increases in salaries of postal employees and federal classified workers (civil service), and for many Executive, Legislative, and Judicial officers of our federal government. This measure, H. R. 8986, is sure to draw much fire and requires a great deal of calm reflection.

While this legislation, introduced by Congressman Morris K. Udall of Arizona, reflects in part the inflationary spiral which our currency has taken, much more is involved. Included is a recognition that salaries for government service should be competitive with those paid in private industry, and sufficient to encourage the best qualified individuals to seek and accept public office.

Insofar as the bill relates to postal and civil service employees, the measure follows the principle of "comparability," as enunciated by the Congress two years ago. However, this principle has never been adhered to with respect to Executive, Legislative, or Judicial salaries.

No private industry in the nation is as large as that of the federal government. The important duties and huge sums of money which are administered by many in the Executive Branch call for a salary range sufficiently rewarding to attract experienced and qualified executives. Such positions should not be merely havens for unsuccessful candidates for public office.

With respect to service in the Judiciary, few will question that our Jurists should be rewarded adequately. Successful lawyers who—in turn—become the best qualified candidates for judicial office invariably must make personal sacrifices when they don judicial robes.

The recommended increase of Congressional salaries poses the most difficult problem for this Member of Congress. As the proposed increase is excessive, this section of the bill may draw the greatest amount of opposition. Yet, according to the bill, the increases sought are substantially below those recommended by the commission whose recent head was Clarence B. Randall, former chairman of the Board of Inland Steel Co.

The Udall bill recommends increasing the Vice President's salary from $35,000 to $45,000 and the salary of Cabinet officers from $25,000 to $35,000. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court's salary would increase from $35,500 to $45,500, and the Associate Justices' salaries would increase from $35,000 to $45,000. Members of Congress would have their salaries raised from $22,500 to $32,500, under this bill.

The American Bar Association has made a careful study of the proposal and its House of Delegates has expressed strong support of the salary increase measure.

Although this Member of Congress has always advocated adequate compensation for public officials, it would not be possible even if it were appropriate to support an increase in Congressional salaries—especially the $32,500 figure. The condition of the national economy is such that the county is divided, both parties can anticipate a wide open battle with plenty of candidates from which to choose.

Near sellouts are assured for this week's testimonial dinners, according to the planners.

These, of course, would be the blowout tonight at Adria Restaurant for former North Chicago Police Chief Jake Novak and the big event for State Sen. Robert Coulson at the Illinois Beach Lodge on Saturday.

Coming up is the Lake County Republican Federation, held at the Waukegan Inn, Dec. 7.

Your Governor Reports

by OTTO KERNER

Illinois is making rapid progress on the new Interstate Highway System.

By the end of this construction season, we expect to have open to traffic more than 700 miles of our state's 1,568-mile allotment. The entire Interstate network is scheduled for opening by 1972. All the Illinois mileage that is open has not been completed to full interstate standards, though most has. All is adequate for present traffic. The entire system, when completed, will consist of controlled, limited access highways that will result in the saving of lives, time and money. Illinois is well ahead of schedule on its share of the system and will pass the halfway mark next year.

Studies indicate that the Interstate roads in Illinois, though consisting of less than one per cent of our total highway mileage, will carry up to 20 per cent of our traffic, representing a total of more than 20 million passenger miles a day. The new roadways are being built at an average cost of about one million dollars a mile.

Recommendations have been made on all the routes throughout Illinois. The last decision was made recently when I met with the governors of Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee to discuss the location of Interstate 24 between Nashville, Tenn., and St. Louis.

On the basis of traffic surveys that indicated the desirability of direct connections to both Chicago and St. Louis, it was determined that the highway should enter Illinois (continued on page 3) that expenses must be curtailed in the hope that reduced federal expenditures may bolster efforts to reduce federal taxes. To vote a salary raise for Congressmen at the present time would be quite inconsistent and unjustifiable, in my thinking.

There has been some suggestion that the bill might be brought to the floor without advance warning and that it might be passed by a voice vote—with no record vote being taken. It is my hope that no such tactic will be adopted and that Members will have an opportunity to vote individually on the salary increase.

It is also my hope that the recommendations to increase salaries for the postal and civil service employees and for each of the branches of government known as the Executive, Judicial and Congressional, will be deliberated—each on its own merits. If they come to the floor of the House, they should be debated and voted upon as separate and distinctly different proposals, with specific approval or rejection for each of the proposals.

Some motorists will be using power brakes and steering on snow and ice for the first time this winter. Perhaps a few words of caution now may save somebody from a costly and injurious collision.

The main thing to bear in mind is that a skid occurs when the front wheels are turned in a direction other than that in which a car is moving. It takes very little speed to cause this to happen on packed ice or snow.

If the skid should occur, turn the front wheels in the direction the front of the car is skidding while you gently apply the brakes until the momentum has slowed to allow you to straighten out again.

A skid is much more easily caused by power steering until you become used to it. The reason is that the turn is often sharper, putting the wheels abruptly at an angle to the car motion. The same problem of suddenness applies to power brakes, so press your foot down as gently as possible. It is even better to pump them, releasing your foot each time.

reasonable level of student support. Tuition is estimated to begin at $200 per academic year and should rise about 20% over the first decade of operation. The county's share of the operating expenses is expected to be about $476,000 during the first year of operation. The state provides practically equal funds to those required of the college district.

The survey estimates that the construction and operation of the junior college should cost each taxpayer about 9c per $100 of assessed valuation in 1965; increasing to 17c by 1975. Thus, if the assessed valuation on your property were $5,500, your share of the expense of the college the first year would be $4.95, increasing to $9.35 by 1975.

'Desert Dream'

By Perl Kapsa

"Desert Dream," a narrative poem, will be published in weekly installments. Written by Perl Kapsa, the poem tells the story of an Arabian horse.

I dreamt I dwelt in nomad lands;
A mighty sheik was I;
And from my tent the desert sands
Reached far to meet the sky.

Strong men I had at my command;
Great power I possessed;
And steeds I had, in all the land
The swiftest and the best.

But I loved most my "Desert Dream"
A white Arabian mare;
Her strength and beauty was supreme.
Her speed beyond compare.

And none but I upon her rode;
She came at beck and call;
In camp she followed where I strode
And made my tent her stall.

Ah, she was beautiful to see,
So perfect did she seem;
In all the world there could but be
One matchless Desert Dream!

At dawn, each day, with shoddy pride,
I led my army out,
And if a raiding band we spied,
We put them soon to rout.

For I was feared both far and wide;
My fighting men were strong,
And was the foe who rashly tried
To defy them might for long.

One morning to my men I said,
"Today you go not out
For Desert Dream and I, instead,
Will go alone to scout."

I brushed my lovely steed with care
Until her white coat shone,
And to her glossy back so fair
I strapped the saddle on.

Then to my tent came Abdul Khan,
My captain, brave and true;
To my saddled mare his quick glance ran.
"I seek a word with you!"

"Sheik Abu Sayd,"—his head bent low,
"Go not alone today,
Lest Ildirim, that wily foe,
Meet you upon the way!"

Full well I know he spoke the truth;
Our desert lands were cursed
With raiding horse thieves and,
forsooth,
Fierce Ildirim was worst!

I smiled at him in haughty pride,
"Your words most foolish seem!
You need not fear; no horse they ride
Can catch the Desert Dream!"

He glanced back through the open tent,
"That haze in yonder sky
Bespeaks a storm of some portent
Before the day's gone by!"

"Enough!" I snapped, "No more I'll hear!"
My voice with anger stern,
"I got no foe nor storm I fear—
Ere nightfall, I'll return!"

Had I but heeded in that hour
The wisdom of his years!
But I was drunk with sense of power;
His words fell on deaf ears.

So out I rode on my eager steed,
A sheik, so rash—so blind!
And putting the Dream to her swiftest speed,
Soon left the camp behind.

"Alone, at last!" I murmured low,
"Alone—just my horse and I!
Alone and free as the winds that blow!
Alone with the sands and sky!"

The Interstate roads will result in a substantial addition to the 14,000 miles of primary highways already maintained by the State of Illinois. One-quarter of our state budget—almost one billion dollars—goes toward building and maintaining our highway system. It is clear we have a substantial stake in the future of our roads.

So rapt was I, so lost in thought—
All vigilance relaxed—
When the Dream, with a plunge, stopped short and sought
To turn around and go back!

To travel on in vain I tried;
She taught the bit in fright!
"What is it, Desert Dream?"
I cried,
"There's naught to fear in sight!"

'Twas then I noticed the haze had spread
And covered half the sky;
Too late I gave the mare her head,
"Back to the camp, Dream, fly!"

But now she plunged to east—to west;
She plunged to north—to south,
And frazzled, shook her shining crest
White white foam flecked her mouth!

Coin Collectors Creating National Change Shortage

Coin collectors are creating a national shortage of the stuff with which we make change.

Financial institutions are feeling the pinch. William Brook, president of the State Bank of Antioch, says the Federal Reserve Bank is rationing coins. For example, if the bank orders ten bags of nickels, they will probably receive one.

The State Bank has not yet had to ration its customers. Mr. Brook said. Metropolitan areas are much harder hit by the shortage than small towns.

Many collectors buy rolls of new coins as they come out, to keep for several years, then sell them at a profit. Others go painstaking through roll after roll of coins, selecting rarer ones for their collections.

Unlike the postoffice, which prints enough stamps to accommodate both the collector and the conventional customer, the U. S. Mint has evidently not taken steps to cope with the rash of coin collectors.

Edward Sletten, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, reports that to date his bank, by trading around with other banks and augmenting their supply from various sources, has also been able to meet the demand for change. But it's a real problem, he says. "Pennies," says Mr. Sletten, "are the biggest problem. I called the First National Bank in Chicago the other day to try to get some pennies, and they had none at all that they could sell me. If we order 2,000 quarters from the Federal Reserve Bank," said Mr. Sletten, "we get 500."

Mr. Sletten said that, unaccountably, he understood Indianapolis had an oversupply of nickels and dimes, and Philadelphia an oversupply of quarters. Why certain coins gravitate in quantity to different areas of the country he couldn't account for.

Vending machines, parking meters, etc. have created an increased demand for coins. Mr. Sletten pointed out, but these coins are usually re-deposited in banks. The coin collector, Mr. Sletten agreed, is probably the big cause of the shortage.

The Christmas rush may well create a real coin problem for the banks, Sletten said. However, perhaps enough piggy banks will be opened to help the situation.

Now—buy a new electric dryer and save up to $60

In the next 60 days over 25,000 Chicagoland people will buy dryers—most will be flameless electric. Read why you should buy electric. Right now—and for a limited time only—Commonwealth Edison and Public Service Company, in cooperation with your dealer, offers you a chance to save as much as $60 on any new flameless electric dryer. (A cash bonus of $20 from Commonwealth Edison, plus up to $40 that you normally save when you buy an electric dryer instead of gas.) For the average family, this equals about 3 years of free drying! And electricity is simplicity. Because there are few moving parts, electric dryers cost less to maintain.

And with no pilot light, your dryer costs nothing when not in use. Clothes dried electrically also come out fresher and cleaner because there are no fumes, flames, or products of combustion to mix with them. What's more, nothing dries clothes faster than today's electric dryers. (Only 26 to 30 minutes for a full load.)

See your dealer now for details. Satisfaction on any flameless electric dryer is guaranteed, of course.

Mrs. Clarence Larson, Americanism chairman, Mrs. Lester Zitkus, Legislative chairman, and Mrs. Edward Jahneke, Publicity chairman, attended the New Citizens' reception at the Homer Dahlinger American Legion Home in Waukegan, on Tuesday, Nov. 12.

Every three months, the 10th District American Legion and Auxiliary Posts and Units sponsor a meeting to welcome the new citizens. There is always a well-planned program, a good speaker, a presentation of flags, flag code booklets, and most important of all, they receive their citizenship papers from the County Clerk.

The eagerness and delight with which these new citizens take their papers makes one realize what a tremendous privilege it is to be a U. S. citizen. Mrs. Zitkus was the pianist for this program. Afterwards, refreshments were served by various units of the 10th District (which is comprised of all of Lake County). Each Unit serves at these receptions at least once during the year.

On Friday, Nov. 8, Mrs. Lucy Himens, president, presided at the regular meeting of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary Unit. According to Mrs. John W. Horan, Jr., Rehabilitation chairman, the Unit will sponsor seven parties at the Downey Hospital during the coming year.

Scout News

The 21 troops in the Sequoyah Neighborhood will present their program, "Girl Scouts Touring the World", this Saturday, Nov. 16, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The tour will be held in the Oakland Grade School Gym.

Getting to know the varied backgrounds of people throughout the world is only a part of international friendship for a Girl Scout. International friendship has been one of the most important aspects of Girl Scout program since the organization's founding. Since the day in 1912 when Juliette Low brought the seeds of Girl Scouting to the United States, Scouts have never forgotten their international beginnings. Today they are proud that the Girl Scout and

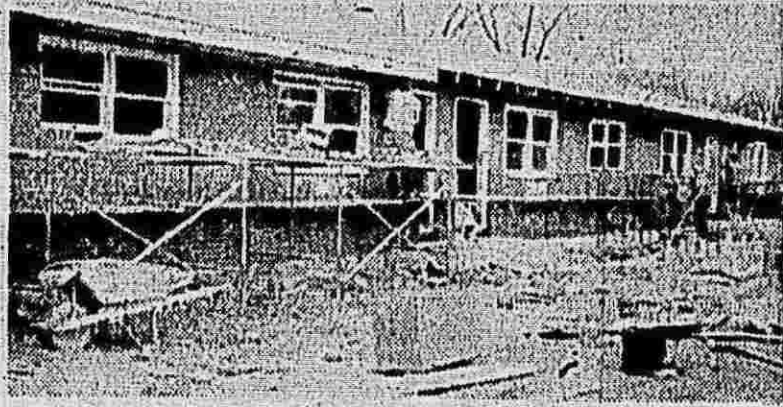

Girl Guide movement has members in 87 countries. The Girl Scout approach to international friendship, however, begins right at home. ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

END OF DIAPER PERIOD

By Mrs. Irene Grain
Baby Care Counselor
Hempstead, L. I.

Baby begins approaching the end of his diaper period at about the age of 15 months. It may be possible now to substitute training pants for diapers during the day. Night diapers probably will be necessary until the baby is two or even older.

It is not unusual for the baby to master night control late in the second year or early in the third.

It is at this time that mothers often become careless about diaper hygiene. They seem to feel that now that baby is grown the risk of diaper rash is a thing of the past. Nothing can be further from the truth, says the American Medical Association.

It is this fallacy that is the subject of this seventh and final in a series of guest columns by baby care counselors on maintaining good diaper hygiene during baby's entire diaper wearing age.

The American Medical Association advises that properly processed diapers and a fastidious routine of diaper hygiene should be used throughout the diaper wearing period. The AMA points out it is a mistake to think that diaper rash occurs only during the early months. Indeed, the most distressing and serious cases tend to be among older babies.

Throughout the toilet training period, when training pants are worn by day and diapers for naps and at night, diapers should be processed just as carefully as in the previous months, says the AMA.

The nation's diaper services have developed a professional routine for processing diapers as a safeguard to

On November 7, there was a meeting held at the Moose Home with approximately 42 members present.

There were three members enrolled: Antonette Jones, Lillian McClung, and Rose Miskinis.

Clara Beyer, Library Chairman, and her committee were in charge of the Chapter night program. Their entertainment for the evening consisted of Mr. Roy Kufalk giving a talk on the Zip code, and answering various questions pertaining to the mails.

Refreshments were served by this committee. Geraldine Mark was re-capped. The Charter was draped in memory of co-worker Lora Bacon, the grandmother of Jane Meyer, who is in the College of Regents.

Get-well cards are being sent by Jr. Regent Evelyn Miller to the following: Margarita Gillum, Bess Henning, Bert Coleman, Lil baby's health. It includes thorough cleaning with non-irritating soap, multiple rinsing with sterilizing and drying with intense heat. Before drying, a special diaper antiseptic is added which dries into the fibers and becomes active when the diapers are wet or soiled. The antiseptic inhibits the growth of bacteria and lessens the chances of diaper rash.

Diapers can be correctly processed at home too. Medical authorities agree that when diapers are done at home they must be thoroughly rinsed to remove all soaps and detergents and then boiled for half an hour to kill all bacteria. The diapers should then be treated with a special diaper antiseptic obtainable in local drug stores.

There was a "Queens Way Style Show" Nov. 11 at the Moose Home. This affair was sponsored by the Membership Committee, under the chairmanship of Millicent Beck.

November 14—There will be an Executive meeting in the home of Rose Kennedy at 7 p.m.

Nov. 14—There will be a "Robbers Party" at the Moose Home. The Child Care Committee will be in charge of this affair under the chairmanship of Doris John. Members and their guests are welcome.

Nov. 21—Green Cap Night—There will be a meeting at the Moose Home at 8 p.m. This is an open meeting. Various Chapters are invited. This meeting is in honor of Geraldine Mark, the green cap girl, who received her green "beanie" at the convocation in Kenosha, Wis., on Oct. 27.

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

Chevrolet Impala 4-Door Sport Sedan

Now how are the high-priced cars going to explain this!

Here are looks, luxury and comfort you'd expect to set you back plenty—if they came from anybody but Chevrolet.

Fresh-minted styling with clean uncluttered lines that give the '64 Jet-smooth Chevrolet its feeling of new length and lowness.

Rich new interiors with supple fabrics (sink your hand into the new vinyl upholstery of the new Impala Super Sport Series, for instance, and ask yourself if you've ever felt softer seat covering).

Here are the niceties of Body by Fisher craftsmanship like you'll find on expensive cars. And stylish touches like the vinyl-clad roof* you can order on the Sport Coupes.

Door-to-door carpeting and foam-cushioned front and rear seats are standard now in all models, including the modestly priced Biscaynes.

And there's a wealth of power to pick from. Engines from a peppery 140-hp 6 to a 425-hp V8*. Transmissions that are refined for smoother, more silent operation. Sixteen power teams in all.

Then, with all of that going for you, you've got the '64 Jet-smooth ride at work to cushion you from road noise and vibration like few other cars can at any price.

Been promising yourself luxury like this someday? Your someday is here, as your dealer will gladly show you.

Strong Sequoit Five Ready for McHenry

Coach Roger Andrews' basketball hopefuls, well into their second week of practice are preparing for their first encounter of the season with McHenry on November 23.

Antioch's hopes this year will be pinned on a squad liberally sprinkled with juniors. Individually, the Sequoit's main hope will be resting on the shoulders of 6'7" center Vic Rogers. Rogers played outstanding basketball for the Sequoit's last season as a sophomore.

"He is improving with every practice session," Andrews said, "and he came to play. Other juniors who have been impressive in practice thus far," Andrews said, "are Bob Schmitz and Bernie Smith."

Smith has already seen action as varsity ball player. Bernie got into the lineup at the close of the season last year during the Regional tournament of the State contests. One of the top scorers on last year's Sophomore squad, Bernie should be a big help to the Sequoit's this year.

Bob Schmitz is coming along very fast, Andrews said. He moves very well in either direction and is making a couple of our more experienced boys sit up and take notice.

Back from last year's squad will be Bob Olschlag, Jeff Gates and Norbert Wolter. "These boys didn't see too much action last year but have shown real promise so far in practice," Andrews said.

A surprise this year, Andrews said, is Bruce Dalgard. "Bruce has improved greatly since our last practice," he added.

Rounding out the squad will be seniors, Jim Barnstable, Dean Denman and Ed Matejka. Bolstering the lineup will be juniors, Jim Edwards, Jim Effinger, Wally Henning, Jesse Inman and Terry Schneider.

Two Sequoit Gridders Make All-Conference

Two Antioch Sequoit gridders made the all conference selections, Coach Roy Nelson announced this week. The selections are made by the players themselves, Nelson said, and each player votes on the boy he thinks was the best at each position during the year.

Twenty-two boys are selected and no distinction is made between first or second team. Jeff Gates was listed at halfback and Lon Ipsen at center for the Sequoit team.

John Lear was mentioned primarily due to his performance at the Lake Forest game, Nelson added, but didn't have enough votes to make the top 22.

Lake Forest headed the list with seven players making the top two squads.

The selections were: Ends, Jack Sorrenson, Lake Forest; Chester Goza, Grayslake; Ron Taylor, Grant; Denny Miller, Wauconda.

Tackles — Woodrow Dill, Lake Forest; Mickey Strom, Grant; George McNeil, Warren; Dave Terlap, Lake Forest.

Guards — Jerry Elserman, Lake Forest; Ron Geraci, Grayslake; Ted Dagh, Warren; Joe Billings, Wauconda.

Center — Don Heckman, Warren; Lon Ipsen, Antioch. Q.B. — Dave Spencer, Grant; Frank Barth, Lake Forest.

H.B. — John Ivester, Grayslake; Jeff Gates, Antioch; Steve Welter, Grant; Jim Kahle, Lake Forest.

F.B. — Tim Feemster, Lake Forest; Bob Scott, Wauconda.

Falcons Face Tough Foes

Coach Dorm Grams' basketball charges at Salem High School are looking toward the toughest schedule any Falcon team has faced.

This was the sobering fact that came out of pre-season speculations by Coach Grams and his staff. The Falcons will meet opponents from such conferences as the Big Eight, the Northwest Suburban in Illinois and the Southern Lakes Conference.

The Falcons have been hurt by graduation but have some talented juniors and should be tougher towards the last half of the season. "The potential is good," Grams said, "but we lack overall size."

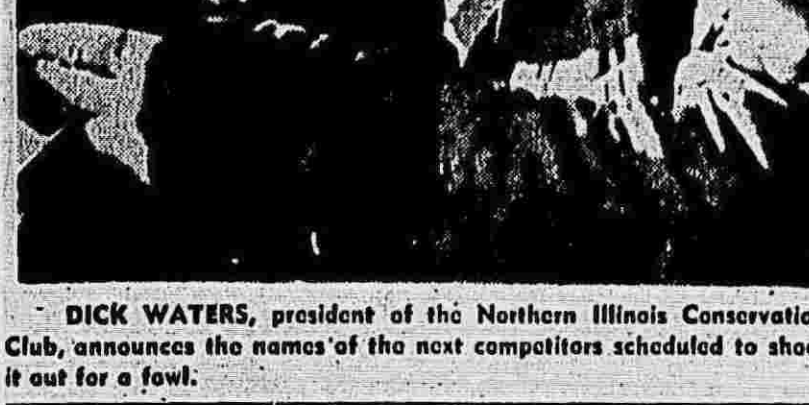

The Falcons will meet Antioch in their first game at Antioch, Wednesday, Nov. 27. "A 50-50 season will be a distinct surprise as we appear to be about a year away," Grams said.

Sales Tax Up In 1963

Proceeds of the Retailers' Occupation Tax for the first 9 months of 1963 are running steadily ahead of such receipts for the first 9 months of 1962, according to the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois review of the recently issued September 1963 State of Illinois Treasurer's Report. Proceeds of the R.O.T. are distributed as follows: 5/7 to General Revenue Fund, which is used for general purposes, 2/7 to the Common School Fund.

First 9 months, 1962, $363,830,342; first 9 months, 1963, $394,237,798; month of September, 1962, $37,365,264; month of September, 1963, $44,182,715.

On April 1, 1963, the "tightening up" legislation on R. O. T. collections passed by the 1963 General Assembly became effective. Is more money being raised as a result of such legislation? About the only answer available to the question is that when you compare R. O. T. revenue figures from the Treasurer's monthly reports for April 1, 1963 to October 1, 1963 with the same period of time for 1962, "Sales Tax revenues are up over $19 million. For the reader's perusal, the following are the figures for such months (taken from the State Treasurer's Monthly Report:

Months	1962	1963	Difference
April	$34,625,723	$35,306,948	$771,225
May	40,117,949	41,877,424	1,759,475
June	38,288,423	42,679,770	4,391,347
July	43,146,878	45,434,815	2,287,937
August	45,919,030	49,168,912	3,249,882
September	37,365,264	44,182,715	6,817,451

West Millmore

By Rosemary Holiday
At the recent meeting of the Venetian Village Civic Association, the new auto stickers that will be issued upon payment of the 1964 dues were shown by Mike Calabrese. The stickers will match the 1964 state license plates as they are deep lavender and white. After discussing the growing concern over the numerous trash cans being left along the roadsides, it was decided to send a letter to the offenders asking that the cans be removed shortly after being emptied. At the close of the business session, coffee and cake were served.

The youngsters in the local Boys Club are trying to show their appreciation to the merchants, who helped support the organization by "Operation Clean-Up." A small group of boys are visiting each merchant and asking what they can do. Some of the odd jobs have been cleaning soap off windows from Trick or Treaters and picking up papers. This is the Boys Club way of saying "thank you."

At the Annual Fall Concert of the Lake Villa Consolidated Grade School band last Sunday, a new musical group, the Villalires was introduced. This new "pop" musical group played three numbers for their debut. The Villalires were followed by the Senior Band playing a new march and a medley of tunes from the musical, "Carnival." The bands are under the direction of Mr. Thalh Rush.

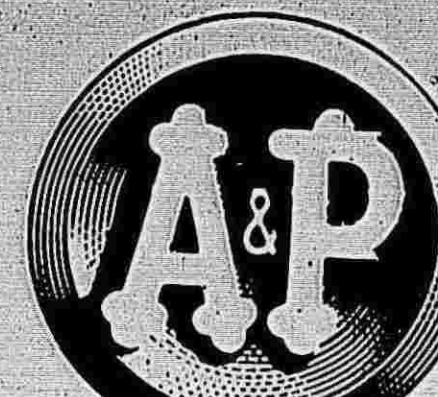

The November meeting of the West Millmore Civic Association will be held this Saturday, Nov. 16, at the Civic Hall. The meeting will convene at 8:00 and all are welcome to attend.

The Lake Villa PTA will hold its regular business session before the open house at Lake Villa school on Monday, Nov. 18. The open house at D. J. Hooper School will be held on Thursday, Nov. 21.

The West Millmore Women's Club will meet at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 19, for a pot luck supper. The meeting will be held at the Civic Hall and those members who have not been asked to bring a dish will be in charge of clean up. The club will hold a brief business meeting before the supper.
